

HIS EAR WAS SLASHED OFF

Horrible Revenge Taken Upon Conductor George R. Merritt.

The Victim Had Caused the Discharge of Two Men and They Concocted a Cruel Scheme to "Do" Him.

The police are searching for George Costigan, who lives at No. 64 Arsenal avenue, and until last week was employed at the Panhandle yards as a switchman. Last Friday night it is claimed that Costigan, with the assistance of a man named Griffith, assaulted and badly injured George R. Merritt, a conductor employed by the Panhandle. The trouble originated last Sunday at the switch yards of the J. M. & L., where the Panhandle crew were engaged in transferring some cars. Conductor Merritt had charge of the work, and it seems Griffith, during the day, caused considerable trouble. Merritt reported the men's carelessness to the company, and both were discharged. Their dismissal created a desire for revenge on Merritt, and they concocted a cruel scheme to disgrace him for life.

On Friday night the plot culminated in the assault on the conductor. Griffith saw Merritt in the yards and calling him aside requested a few minutes conversation in regard to the trouble. While the men talked, Costigan, with a knife in hand, approached Merritt from the rear and with a vicious stroke with the knife nearly severed his enemy's ear from his head. Another curve of the weapon, cut a deep slash behind the ear and the work was complete. Merritt was taken to his home on east Market street, and Dr. Brayton called to dress his injuries, which were intensely painful. He presented a bloody sight, and adhered to the head only by a small piece of lint. With some difficulty the physician stitched the injured member and dressed the other injuries. A warrant was sworn out for Costigan's arrest, but he has not yet been found.

ENCAMPMENT COMMITTEES.

Some of the Details of the Grand Parade Under Discussion.

The National G. A. R. Encampment committee on parade met yesterday afternoon at the rooms of the Commercial Club, and was largely attended. Chairman Gen. James R. Carnahan presided, he having the superintendency of all matters concerning the parade.

On the day of the parade the headquarters of the committee will be located at the corner of Seventh and Pennsylvania streets, and its movement will be directed from that point.

There was considerable discussion about the adoption of a uniform which shall distinguish the members of the committee from other aids and orderlies at that time, and it was finally voted to wear black McClellan hats with gold cord, a blue sack coat with brass buttons, black trousers, white belts and black top hats. These uniforms will be ordered especially for the day, and A. P. Hendrickson, J. M. Paver and W. H. Griffith were appointed a committee to secure them.

J. M. Paver, J. H. Bieler and W. N. Harding were appointed the commissary committee and will provide refreshments for the members of the committee at its headquarters. A. P. Hendrickson, W. J. Richards, J. E. McClellan, W. H. Griffith, C. F. Bayles and W. H. Hobbs were appointed a committee on water supply. They will provide six barrels of water to the square along the line of march from Seventh street to New York on Pennsylvania street. These lines in line and will see that they are not used by anyone else. The question of whether it was the duty of this committee of officers of law and order to see that the streets were kept clear on that day was discussed, and it was finally decided that it was the duty of the committee. It was the unanimous voice of its members that the matter be left in the hands of General Carnahan, and that he should make arrangements with the chief of police as shall be necessary. Oran Perry was asked to assist him. The streets will be stretched with cables the day before the parade, and no one but the marchers will be allowed inside of them. The committee adjourned to meet again about the 20th of August.

Camp Fire Committee.

The committee on camp fires also held a meeting, and was presided over by its chairman, Charles Shaffer. The duties of this committee are to provide a number of public entertainments, which it will provide with speakers and music, and which will be similar to many camp fires which have been held in this city, only that they will be on a much larger scale. The committee did not take any definite steps, except to determine that there should be a number of them during the term of the encampment, some indoors and some out.

Grand Army Notes.

Next Saturday will be soldiers' day at Bethany Park, with an eventful program. Last week Department Commander Johnston re-established A. J. Downing Post, No. 467, at Montezuma, with about forty members.

The Seventy-third Indiana will hold its reunion in G. A. R. Hall, corner of Washington and Tennessee streets, Sept. 6, at 2 o'clock.

Reports from many parts show an interest which has never before been manifested. Many new members are joining, and lapsed members are renewing their pledges.

The Massachusetts delegation to the encampment has voted to present the name of Jack Adams for commander-in-chief and 3,000 men will come to Indianapolis from the Bay State.

No veteran who is not a member of the Grand Army will be permitted to march in the review of Tuesday of the encampment week. Some have understood otherwise. It is a Grand Army affair.

Saturday the ex-soldiers of Hamilton county will hold a reunion in Nobleview. General Gibson, of Ohio, is announced as the orator. "Come," says the circular, "for we have a great work yet to do."

The report that the late Quartermaster-General Taylor will not be an aspirant for the position of commander-in-chief is denied. Charles F. Lincoln, Deputy Commissioner of Pensioners, General Raun, is announced as a candidate.

It is expected that the national aid-camp will act as escort to the commander-in-chief at Indianapolis in the parade Tuesday morning. Sent. Senior Aid-camp David S. Brown, of New York city, is devoting much time in that direction. State organizations of aids are being formed.

Mr. W. H. Messenger's Statement.

Mr. W. H. Messenger desires to make the following statement in regard to the review suit brought before Judge Brown, in chambers, on Friday, in which Mrs. T. Higgins was defendant: "When the review suit was issued there was a mutual agreement for continuance for a few days."

"Our Husbands"

tell us that with

Cleveland's
Baking Powder

we make better bread than our mothers did."

Mrs. Higgins, at her own request, went with me to Squire Johnson and confessed to me that she had paid $15.00 for the suit. I agreed to return part of the goods until the above claim and costs were paid. There had been no payment made on her account since Dec. 13, 1892, but she has at various times made promises to pay this amount since the agreement, and said it should all be paid by June 1st. She was not here on June 1st, and there being no payment up to that date, I prayed for execution and levied upon the described property. During this period of time there was no request or suggestion of an appeal, so that my actions were merely those of a merchant trying to collect a debt after extending ample time."

UGLY-LOOKING CANNIBALS.

Mayor Sullivan, Judge Buskirk and Others Receive the Foreigners.

Mayor Sullivan, Judge Buskirk and a number of others visited the ball park, yesterday, and were highly pleased with the gang of six ugly-looking cannibals whom F. Frost proposes to introduce to the people of Indianapolis this week. Two of the number are queens, one a queen de jure and the other a queen de facto. The fact of there being royal personages in the crowd is not the interesting feature of the crowd, however.

Wherein interest attaches to these cannibals is the fact that they are expert jugglers, throwers, and are a sort of art that civilization has never discovered. The boomerangs they use are of hickory, nearly three feet long, convex on the upper and concave on the under surface, thin and sharp-edged, and bent in the segment of a circle.

The feats which these disreputable-looking cannibals perform with these pieces of wood are wonderful. They don't throw the boomerang forty or fifty feet and have it rebound to them, as is probably common belief. They send it circling off for a quarter of a mile or so in a magnificent circle, and the boomerang takes on more motion as it travels. It is thrown not only on its own axis and circles the thrower, but weaves up and down in long and graceful curves, and more than once the motion is reversed, so that the boomerang is in the air, so that it describes a figure 8.

The boomerang recognizes no scientific principle, and reverses its course as the known to the cannibals that use these strange weapons. It seems like exaggeration, but it is not, to say that an expert boomerang thrower can make one circle around an object.

And if the boomerang is properly made it is easily seen that it would slice a man in two as easily as it would a bird. The cannibals themselves seem to know this. Whenever a boomerang is in the air they stand ready to dodge. Quite as surprising as any of their feats is the fact that the boomerang is that making one circle to the right and another to the left, both thrown with the right hand.

CHATEL MORTGAGES.

Valentine Born, Furniture Dealer, Files Two, and John C. Hart, Shoe Merchant, One.

Late yesterday afternoon there was filed for record in the recorder's office, by Valentine Born, two chattel mortgages on the entire stock of furniture in his store rooms at Nos. 97 and 99 East Washington street. The mortgages are given to the Conner-Waller-DePrez Furniture Company, of Shelby county, this State, and Anderson & Barry, of Philadelphia, Pa., and are to secure notes heretofore given to these firms. The mortgage to the Shelby county firm is for the sum of $17,057.52, and recites the execution of two notes to secure which the mortgage is given. One note is for the sum of $9,290.57, and payable one day after date. There are several other notes executed by Born & Co. on which the Shelby county firm are indorsers, and which are held by the First National, Shelbyville National and Farmers' National Banks of Shelbyville, and the Capital National of this city. The amounts of these notes are small. The mortgage to Anderson & Barry is for $1,100, and is to secure four notes falling due between Aug. 1 and Sep. 1.

John C. Hart, proprietor of the shoe store at No. 10 North Pennsylvania street, known as the Fashion, also filed a chattel mortgage upon his entire stock of goods, furniture and fixtures to secure an $18,000 note, payable to the Capital National Bank, dated July 15, and due in thirty days, and on which $18,750, due in thirty days, and due in thirty days.

NEW SUITS IN THE COURTS.

Mrs. Emily Tansil Files Sensational Charges in a Divorce Suit.

Emily Tansil, yesterday afternoon, filed suit in the Superior Court seeking divorce from Louis Tansil, and makes sensational charges against her husband in the complaint. She alleges that they were married in August, 1892, and since their marriage she charges that he has been guilty of the most inhuman cruelty, and has choked and kicked her and threatened to take her life. She also alleges that he compelled her to use drugs for unlawful purposes. She concludes her complaint by charging him with the same manner of crime which, it was alleged, caused the death of Mrs. Charles Wadley, and for which Wadley is now serving a sentence of three years in the penitentiary. She says her husband has threatened to kill her, and ever divulged the facts set forth in her complaint, and alleges that she fears he will execute his threats unless restrained, and asks for an order of court restraining him from any acts of violence towards her or in any way interfering with her. The complaint was immediately presented to Judge Harner, and upon a showing of facts he issued the restraining order prayed for, and it was placed in the hands of the sheriff and served upon the defendant.

Wants a Receiver for the "Phalanx."

Oliver T. Cumbach yesterday filed suit against William F. Clark, and asked the appointment of a receiver for the Indiana Phalanx, State organ of the Prohibition party. A few days ago Cumbach republished all the property used in the publication of the paper, and now he alleges that he is unacquainted with the business of conducting a paper, and if the property is left in his possession and the publication of the paper suspended it will result in irreparable damage to it, for which reason he asks for the appointment of a receiver to take charge of the business and control the publication of the paper pending the final settlement of the republish suit. The case will be heard by Judge of the Superior Court Monday morning.

New Trial Granted.

In the Criminal Court, yesterday morning, a motion for a new trial was filed in the case of Harry Paris, convicted of petit larceny. The ground for the motion is that he was not represented by counsel upon the trial of the case. He was tried at the same time that Al Wright, with whom he was arrested, was tried for the same offense, and it was thought that the attorney who represented Wright was also attorney for Paris, but it seems that he was not and hence the motion for a new trial in the case of Paris. Judge Cox granted the motion.

Legal Notes.

Mrs. Lizzie Schaffer, aged thirty-five years, a resident of Acton, was detained in prison yesterday. The affidavit alleging insanity was filed by E. Williams, and alleged several attempts at suicide and extreme violence.

O'Connell and others yesterday brought suit against the L. E. & W. for damages in the sum of $250. A wagon belonging to the O'Connells was wrecked at the East-street crossing a few weeks ago, by an L. E. & W. switch engine, and the suit is to recover the alleged value of the wagon.

Judge Brown had before him, in the Circuit Court yesterday, a genuine real live King and Queen, and the most peculiar part of the whole circumstance was that both were American citizens and have been living in obscurity in this city, making no claims to royalty. The King was Mrs. Emma King, and the Queen was her daughter, Emma Prince. Mrs. King filed a petition in the Circuit Court, asking that her daughter be sent to the Reform School on account of her alleged incontinence and immorality. The girl was sent to the Reform School.

FRESH AIR MISSION.

Excellent Work Done Among Sick Children During the Past Week.

The Fresh Air Mission did excellent work last week, caring for an average of about sixty daily.

The distance some of the mothers bring their little ones for the benefits of the mission is wonderful, some from the old Shaw carriage works and others from beyond the Atlas engine works, so anxious are they for the recovery of their little ones. The majority, of course, come from the neighborhood of the pork houses and downtown tenement districts. The quiet, restful day at the camp does the mothers as much good as the babies. It is a pleasant change and tends to restore their shattered nerves. The bathing tent is used both when the weather is hot and when it is cool. No trouble has been experienced this season in inducing the mothers and children to bathe. It is a luxury they all enjoy, while the babies positively revel in their prepared baths and the dry rub afterwards. A few of the stronger convalescent ones are given an occasional bath when the weather justifies it. The matron and trained nurse are unwearied in their efforts to promote the comfort and permanent recovery of their guests.

HAD FORGED AN ORDER.

How John Ulrich's Waiter Attempted to Get the Best of Him.

John Ulrich, proprietor of the cafe in the Denton House, which closed July 14, returned from Martinsville last evening with blood in his eye, searching for Charles Thorne, waiter behind his lunch counter, who had given out the false report that he had fled, leaving unsatisfied creditors. His return developed the fact that in his absence Thorne had forged his name to an order for his stock. Captain Bieler, to whom the order had been presented, recognized it as a forgery, and Thorne, without it, but the latter asked to see the note a moment, and coolly tore it up. The only wages due Thorne and the cook was their pay from Monday to Friday of this week. It is probable that Thorne will be arrested on a charge of forgery.

INDIANA SCHOOLS.

Superintendent Vorles Gets in a Good Word for "Comrade" Hawkins's Snag.

Superintendent of Instruction Vorles has issued his annual report of the department. It is the thirty-ninth annual report of the department, and is a neatly bound book containing some 370 pages. In his introduction the Superintendent states that the new school-book law has been all that could be asked for, and that it was working in a most satisfactory manner. He says that the law has been a great success, and that it has given every opportunity for fraud. The report shows that the total value of school buildings and grounds in the State is $16,098,712.67, and the value of the apparatus is $708,791.50. There have been 243 new schoolhouses built, valued at $319,574.77.

The affidavit was filed by a member of the Retail Merchants' Association, which has filed affidavits against several merchants and secured convictions for the same offense. Shaffer was fined for selling a new bookkeeper for the institution. He is Albert E. Carroll, who formerly was employed in a railway office in this city.

Martin's Remains Shipped.

The remains of George Martin, killed by an electric car on last Thursday night, were encased in a plain coffin yesterday and shipped to Berrien, Mich., in response to a telegram received by the coroner and signed by Henry Rennie. Who Rennie is, and as to the family relations of the dead man, the coroner has yet been able to learn. It is likely that the remains will be reported yesterday was soon to have been married to Martin, states that she supposed him married, and all that he represented himself to be.

Assaulted His Wife.

William Stalhut was fined $1 and costs by Justice Daniels yesterday afternoon for assault and battery on his wife. The affidavit against Stalhut was filed by Moses Sisco, his father-in-law. It seems from the evidence that Mrs. Stalhut met her husband upon the street with another woman and took exception to accompanying her husband. Stalhut did not like the way in which his wife pushed his companion aside and assaulted her.

Mr. Rondthaler has just returned to the city from an extended journey through Canada, where he made a special study of their municipal governments and public works.

Wanted—Twined.

Detectives Thornton and McGuff arrested a darky named Harry Burnett yesterday, who is wanted by the Toledo police on the charge of robbery. Burnett is a "fly" looking negro and had just secured a situation in a hair-dressing barber shop when arrested. He will be held until the arrival of the Toledo officers.

WARNING GIVEN IN TIME

Edict Issued by President Sturgis of the New York Stock Exchange.

All Circulating of Evil Rumors Discontinued—New York Business Houses Have Forced the Mills to Close Down.

TO PROTECT CREDIT.

New York Stock Exchange Realizes the Gravity of the Situation.

NEW YORK, July 22.—In accordance with a resolution passed by the governing committee yesterday, President F. K. Sturgis, of the New York Stock Exchange, delivered the following address from the rostrum of the exchange this morning:

"The board of governors of the Stock Exchange held a prolonged session yesterday afternoon and I am instructed by them to give to you the result of their deliberation. The times through which we are passing are phenomenal in nature and have never been equaled by any which have transpired during this generation. It behooves every member of the exchange not only to be loyal to his own sense of honor, but to stand firmly and devotedly to the institution of which he is a member. The community has always looked to the Stock Exchange for a high standard of financial and commercial integrity, and it has not been disappointed. Moreover, it is true that during the recent phenomenal shrinkage and distressing complications, the public has looked with amazement and deep respect to the manner in which the members of the Stock Exchange have lived up to their contracts. But in all large bodies of men there will be found individuals who for private gain or public notoriety will take a stand at variance with their associates.

"I would that we had the power to punish, as it deserves, such disloyalty. But it is our intention, in so far as our power goes, to put a stamp of absolute disapproval on all irregularities and all methods of doing business subversive of welfare and injurious to public credit. Furthermore, the public is apt to confuse rumors, which have their origin in Wall street, with the actual facts, and to give to the exchange the credit of any malicious or false statements which may come from the seething mass that throngs in Wall street.
